VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1867. NO. 62.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. B. PELL, Proprietor.

THE ADDRESS OF THE MODERATE REPUBLICANS.

The appearance of the first document from the moderate Republicans, demonstrates, we think, that it would have been wise in the Conservative party to have held a State Convention in Raleigh, early in the present month, as was at first designed. The address referred to, we think, falls far short of the occasion, and is not conceived in a spirit calculated to combine the Conservative elements in the State. It seems to be, in the main, a lecture to the Republican party, upon the impropriety of putting forward Northern men, at the expense of the native Republicans in this State. There is too much regard to men, and too little to measures. There is, we think, too much self-sufficiency and blind party pride to accomplish what the condition of the country required, and what we think a Conservative Convention could have brought about—a coalition of the Conservative men of all parties. It does not recommend, or even invite a combination for temporary purposes, which it might have done without sacrifice of principle. On the contrary, it simply advises the "people to meet in their respective Counties, and put forward men true to the Union, and trustworthy as Republicans, and by supporting such, manifest to the nation, that in North Carolina there exists such a prevailing sentiment of nationality, and such voluntary obedience to the laws of the land, that our restoration to rights and powers in the government, so far from being dangerous to the peace and welfare of the Republic, will add strength to the edifice of Union liberty and equality." Is it absolutely necessary that the people should, under all circumstances vote for a Republican, in order to manifest a spirit of nationality and voluntary obedience to the laws? Might not the moderate Republicans manifest this spirit by voting for the next best man they could find, in counties where it is simply impossible to elect their candidate? Are they to nominate their man in every county and trust to the chance of dragooning the Conservatives into their support, as an only hope of beating the Radicals?

The thing in a nut shell is simply this: The Conservative party at this time, under the pressure, of impending danger, is quite as patriotic as political parties ever are and are not eager after seats in the Convention. They will, in order to beat the proscriptionists, vote for the man who is most available—whose past life is such as to give reasonable assurance of his patriotism; it matters not what his party predilections may be. But they desire to have a voice in the selection of candidates, especially in counties where they constitute a majority of the Conservative voters. The only plan which can be devised that will unite the whole Conservative strength is to call County Conventions of the Conservative voters, and when the Conservative party proper is in the majority, nominate a man from its ranks, because of his availability; when the moderate Republicans predominate let them have the nomination, and where the county is entitled to two members, let them select a man from each party. In this way the whole Conservatism of the country can be concentrated upon the Radical front, and can crush it to atoms. Without this, there is danger of distraction and defeat. The principles involved in the contest are few, and both parties are in accord upon them. The minor points of State policy should be left to future Legislatures and future party combinations. At present let us discard the dictation of narrow-minded politicians, who like locomotives are constructed for moving upon a certain track, and are worthless if you but widen or narrow the guage by an inch.

They see small things in their immediate vicinity, but they cannot discern any great things in the future. Let Mr. Pool grumble at the Northern interlopers and Mr. Goodloe, in his weak way at the "copperhead victories" North, but the patriotism of the State has a higher duty; the preservation of its liberties, and it will discharge this duty regardless of these cumberous party engines.

LEVI SILLIMAN IVES, D. D. LL. D.

Levi Silliman Ives, formerly Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church, of North Carolina, and widely known for his religious writings, philanthropic works and conversion to the Roman Catholic faith, died at his residence at Manhattanville, at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, in the seventy-first year of his age.

Mr. Ives was born in Meriden, Conn., on the 16th of September, 1797. At an early age he removed, with his parents, to Lewis County, N. Y.; where he lived until he attained his fifteenth year, when he was sent to the academy at Lowville. During the last months of the war with Great Britain he served in the army, but upon the return of peace went back to school, entering Hamilton College in 1816. At first he studied for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church; but before he was ordained illness compelled him to leave the college, and upon his recovery to health his religious views became changed and he allied himself with the Protestant Episcopal denomination.—In 1820 he removed to New York, where he studied theology under Bishop Hobart, who ordained him in August, 1822. Three years later (1825) he married Rebecca, a daughter of the Bishop. After his ordination his first mission was to Batavia, Genesee County, subsequently he took charge of Trinity Church, in Philadelphia, where he was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop White, and in 1827 removed to Lancaster, Pa., and officiated at Christ Church. During the next year he returned to New York and served as assistant minister at Christ Church for about six months, when he became rector of St. Luke's, in this city. Here he remained until he was consecrated Bishop of North Carolina, in 1831. While in North Carolina he became quite popular for his efforts in behalf of education and his success in providing for the spiritual welfare of the slaves. He also became widely known as a theological author from his works on the "Apostles' Doctrine and Fellowship" and the "Obedience of Faith," published in New York in 1849. When the excitement on the Oxford tracts broke out in the Episcopal church he strongly sided with the tractarian movement, and this position caused his alienation from his diocese. The fact was that he had doubted the truth of the Protestant faith for a long time, and in 1852 while on a visit to Rome openly announced his faith and was admitted to the Catholic Church. This conversion on his part was severely denounced by the Protestant religious papers in the United States, and upon his return he defended the act in a work entitled. "The Trials of a Mind in its Progress to Catholicism" (London and Boston, 1854). After his return to America he became Professor of Rhetoric in St. Joseph Theological Seminary, and lectured in the convents of the Sacred Heart and the Sisters of Charity. He also occasionally lectured in public and served as an active President of a conference of St. Vincent de Paul. About ten years ago he conceived the idea of founding a home in this city for vagrant and orphan children of Catholic parentage, and having obtained the approval of Archbishop Hughes, set energetically to work to carry out his design. The result of his philanthropic labors was the establishment of the Catholic Male Protectory and the House of the Holy Angels, two of the most deserving charitable institutions in this State. They were first located in New York, but were afterwards removed to Westchester county, where they are now in operation. Both were under the charge and direction of the Society for the Protection of Destitute Catholic Children, of which the deceased was President from its incorporation to his death. Dr. Ives was a very able gentlemen and eloquent speaker, and his death will be much lamented by our Catholic community and by the public in general.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

ASSETS $7,000,000.

THIS COMPANY ISSUES TEN YEAR NON-FORFEITING ENDOWMENT POLICIES, contracting to pay the amount insured at death or the specified time.

An endowment policy presents the double attraction of providing for one's family or other dependents, in case he should be cut off before a specified age, or of securing to himself independence, in case he attains the age. Thus insuring for ten years, a note for one half of the cost will be taken by paying six per cent interest.

This plan gives, in addition to all the advantages of life insurance, a safe and convenient INVESTMENT for one's savings, till they have accumulated to a definite amount; which he receives in one sum at the specified time.

PETERSBURG AND WELDON,

RALEIGH AND GASTON,

NORTH CAROLINA,

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND WELDON,

ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,

CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,

And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winnsboro', Columbia, Sumterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c. &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Maritime risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, flour, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "VIA PETERSBURG."

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1867.

UNWISE DISCUSSION.

It is difficult for some men to write or speak with discretion. Partizan feeling or ambition will be sure to outcrop itself in times of political excitement.—Whereas, men who are guided by a pure, unselfish patriotism, will always show itself by its coolness and moderation.

Gov. Bragg's speech at the Conservative meeting in this City last Saturday, was of this latter character. It was free from passion—free from the arts of the demagogue. He appealed to the reason of men, and indulged in no invective, no expletives or bitter railing, but eliminated in plain simple terms, that course of policy, which humanity, kindness to both races among us, and a wise and considerate statesmanship demand, for the safety and prosperity of the whole country and all classes.

The same spirit marks the able letter of Gov. Graham, published by us on Wednesday last, which, although differing in some respects from the views of many of his friends, submits his thoughts in a manner so felicitous, and at the same time, so convincing of his own pure patriotism and honest conviction, as to inspire all with the admiration and respect, which his entire public life has riveted upon the judgment and feelings of his fellow-citizens.

What a pity it is, that all of us cannot speak and write thus, whatever may be our opinions. We regret to learn that the speeches and talks of the speakers at the Radical meeting at the Court House, in this City, on Wednesday evening last, were in wide contrast, with the speech and letter above alluded to. We had no reporter at that meeting. We have no disposition to ridicule or to madden our political opponents. The solid differences of opinion between us, throw us wide enough apart, without our desiring to widen the breach, by showing the same bitter and retaliating spirit towards them. But we have heard some things we regret, and which we ought not to overlook.

We are informed that Mr. Holden, Senior Editor of the Standard, who made the most elaborate speech, perhaps, made many characteristic assaults upon his political opponents, denouncing them as secessionists and traitors, as enemies to the colored race, &c. He attempted a reply to Gov. Bragg. We are told that he avowed himself opposed to all distinctions between the white and colored races—regretted that any such distinctions ever existed, and that he should labor for the obliteration of all distinctions. We suppose the sentiment was fully endorsed by all who participated in the meeting, whether white or black. It is fair to presume, if the Senior has been reported fairly to us, that the Junior Editor of the Standard, Mr. Joseph W. Holden, who, it is understood will be one of the Radical candidates for the Convention, also endorses that sentiment.—If not, he owes it to himself to disavow it. The Senior, also, we are told, made some very unguarded and incendiary remarks about the "war of races." He attacked Gov. Bragg and those who favor his views, as desiring to bring this horrid state of things about. If his remarks on this point have been fairly represented to us, we have no hesitation in saying that the charge is utterly without foundation. No sane man desires such a thing, and no Conservative will give any countenance to it. Gov. Bragg's allusion to a "war of races" was simply incidental and was alluded to only as a sequence which followed necessarily, a hostile course towards the whites on the part of the blacks. Such a result he deprecated in the extreme. But if Mr. Holden is correctly reported, his remarks seemed to court such a result—indicated that he would be glad to provoke it, and in a menacing manner affirmed that, if it came, Gov. Bragg and his coadjutors would be the first to go under!

We appeal to reasonable men North and South, and especially to the military authorities among us, if such language is admissable from any one at this particular time especially. Is it not, at least, unprovoked and imprudent? Does it not violate that license to allow free speech and a free press only so far, as not to promote public disorder and lawlessness. We allude to this subject with regret, not designing to depart from our purpose not to enter into any controversy with the Standard, but simply to allude to a matter, which our position obliges us to do, as one anxious to preserve the peace and quiet of society. We further learn that the speakers disavowed the doctrine of confiscation. It is too late in the day for Radicals to attempt thus to back out.

ELECTIONS YET TO BE HELD.

Concerning the elections that are to be held during the coming month, the National Intelligencer says, New York has to elect a State ticket and Legislature. That its Republican majority of last year will be reversed is as certain as anything can be that has not actually happened. The estimates of the Conservative majority are so large that we hardly care to annoy our opponents in advance by repeating them; but that the majority will be overwhelming, they know as well as we do. In New Jersey there is a Legislature to be chosen, which will, of course, be Conservative, and a constitutional amendment allowing negro suffrage is to be voted on. Its chances, after the late result in Ohio, may very readily be estimated. In Michigan and Kansas, negro suffrage is also to be voted on. In these two States, and in Wisconsin, Minnesota and Massachusetts, there are State elections to be held early next month. In all of them we count on large gains for the Conservatives, and shall not be at all surprised to see two or three of them give a Conservative majority

WAY TRAVEL.

Our correspondent "Progress" to day touches a point which is of much importance to our merchants and our Rail Roads. There are two points, about which we may differ with our correspondent, yet we entirely approve of his design to stir up our Rail Roads and merchants to see if something cannot be effected, to afford facilities to our people along the routes of Rail Roads for their better accommodation.

1st. We advocate no plan which experience and calculation can demonstrate, will certainly damage the Railroads pecuniarily. We are sure our correspondent desires no such thing; because we know he is deeply interested in the success of our Roads.

2nd. We do not favor the idea, that our Railroads are to be indifferent to either through travel or through freight. Our North Carolina Railroads should be conducted on the same liberal principles that the Railroads of other States are conducted, to the extent of their ability. The citizens of other States are as deeply interested in the accommodation which our Railroads afford them, as the citizens of North Carolina are in the accommodation which the Railroads of other States afford to ours. We are a sister-hood of States and a brother-hood of people, and we are in favor of our Roads doing all they can to facilitate through mails, through travel, and through freight.

What our correspondent desires is, that too much attention should not be paid to the accommodation of other people, to the neglect of our own. We believe that a wise discretion into which all our Railroads should enter heartily and to co-operate with each other in effecting, would lead all our Roads to work together to facilitate the public mails, through travel and through freight, and at the same time promote to their utmost capacity way travel and way freight.

Here at the capital of the State, we are paying high prices for Northern flour, Western bacon, Northern pork, Northern butter, Northern beef, Northern cabbages, Northern potatoes, and thousands of other things which can be produced cheaper in this State than anywhere else, but which we cannot get, because the expense of freight and travel are too high in North Carolina to make their production abundant and profitable. Is it not a crying shame, that our people are dependent upon Northern markets for these things? Can any one doubt the causes of our poverty and dependence when these things are so? We have nearly bankrupted ourselves by making cotton and tobacco, while we have to go North to purchase what we eat and wear. Let the people look to it.

As we expected, the call of a State Convention being too short, and the delegates appointed to attend believing there would be none, failed to attend here on the 16th. A few gentlemen from Wayne having sufficient leisure determined to visit the City on Wednesday, to be on hand if the delegates met. We are glad to learn that our friends in that County are fully up to time, and are ready to do their duty in the coming election. In no County in the State are the Conservatives more fully organized, than in the County of Wayne. The young men of that County do not wait for the old stagers to move, but they are active in promoting the interests of Conservatism. We hope their example will be followed by the young as well as the more aged men, all over the State.

The policy of the many disfranchised Conservative men in the State to be still, when the people are calling for their counsels in this crisis, cannot be justified. Our opponents who are equally disfranchised, are not acting thus. They are busy night and day in promoting Radical measures.—Let our Conservative men do likewise. The people claim at their hands, the advice and counsel they are so well prepared to give.

Meanwhile we hope that some public meetings of Conservatives in the State, will suggest at once a proper day, when the Conservatives can meet in Convention in this City.

We learn that J. H. Harris, the negro speaker at the Radical meeting on Wednesday night last, remarked, during his speech, that he would be glad to have the photograph or picture of every Conservative colored man in the County. Said he, "what shall we do with these men?" The reply was, from some of the colored people present, "Hang um!" "Hang um!"

And this is what they call freedom. Colored men are allowed by Congress to vote, but what freedom can there be when men are not allowed to vote as they please? But there are two sides to this. These men who are trying to stir up strife between blacks or between whites, will get their deserts.

Gov. Worth returned on yesterday from Columbia, S. C., having met Gen. Canby and Gov. Orr according to appointment—We have not seen him but learn that the interview was pleasant and agreeable, and that the order for the election will be issued in a few days.

It was said of Shaftesbury, that his public acts were so ingeniously contrived as that each reflected infamy upon the others. This may be said with far greater truth of some men in our own age and midst.

The yellow fever is abating rapidly everywhere. In Memphis there were only seven deaths up to noon yesterday. The Secretary of the Howard Association at New Orleans has telegraphed that no further contributions are needed. In Vicksburg there have been no deaths within forty-eight hours. In Galveston there were only four during the same time, and in Mobile there were only two yesterday.

A white radical candidate for the Virginia Convention, named White, became involved in a row with the colored adherents of another candidate, colored, at Williamsburg, Va., recently and was compelled to flee for his life. He had his enemies finally bound over to keep the peace.

STATE NEWS.

—At a Conservative meeting held in Salisbury for Rowan County on the 15th, inst. Messrs. M. L. Holmes and Wm. M. Robbins were selected as candidates for the State Convention. This is a most capital selection and we presume will secure the the support of every Conservative man in the County. D.A. Davis, Esq., presided, and Messrs. Crossland and Stewart acted as Secretaries. The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That we agree to ignore all old party divisions, and unite as one body with the great conservative party in restoring our State to the Union.

—A young man, whose name we could not learn, met with a sudden death, one night last week, while out 'possum hunting within three miles of Concord. Two of those he was with had crossed a small ravine, or gully; he remarked that he would go up higher and cross. He tried to do so by jumping; he missed the opposite side, and fell back into a ravine, breaking his neck it is supposed. When taken up he was dead. He had been married but three weeks.—Wadesboro Argus.

—The Wilmington Evening Star has become the Morning Star.

—A Weldon correspondent of the Petersburg Express gives the following account of a fracas between freedmen near Heathsville in Halifax County:

"A fracas occurred among a party of freedmen about Heathville, a few days ago, in which one was severely but not fatally stabbed. They had been distilling brandy on shares, on a neighboring plantation, and after dividing went to drinking it—the next thing, as a matter of course, was a row.

The wounded man was taken to the house of one of the neighbors, who lived near by, and who is also his "brother" in the "League," and while the others were gathered around the sufferer, he slipped over to the house of his cripple guest and stole therefrom everything he could carry off.

The same correspondent gives the following item:

Mr. John Weller has sold his plantation and extensive vineyard to Dr. Garrett for six hundred acres of land in another part of the county, and eight thousand dollars in money. This is the most extensive vineyard in the county, being some eight or ten acres in extent, and containing many varieties of grape, the favorite Scuppernong being in abundance.

CAPT. LAZELLE TO THE X. P. G.

CHARLOTTE N. C., Oct. 14th, 1867.

W. W. HOLDEN,

Editor Raleigh Standard, Raleigh, N. C.

MY DEAR HOLDEN:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your personal congratulations, extended to me publicly in the issue of your paper on the 12th instant, in a paragraph which you are pleased to head "The Grassy Creek Difficulty."

Really, Holden, it seems to me that you were in the facetious vein when you wrote. I have heard before of your playful wit, and innocent practical jokes upon the public, such as facing, like the noble sun-flower, to the genial warmth of the predominant party, when you were expected to look the other way. Surveyors, you know, take "back-sight" in running straight lines.—Pray, do you, dear Holden, in your lofty singleness of purpose?

A soliloquy follows your congratulation. You say "we thought the national forces were here to protect, and not to harrass and oppress Union men." Why not add, my dear Holden, when you and your son (for you say we,) first thought and wished so? It would give a charming compactness, and confer tone upon your monologue. Now, Holden, are you a Simon-pure prodigal, returning to get a few husks?—or have you a longing eye on the fat calves? I really cannot tell. Things must appear differently, you know, from your elevated, and my insignificant stand-point. Then Holden, my dear fellow, you follow up so quickly by immediately making two speculative inquiries: "What is to be done with the rebel Sheriff Austin?" and "Who is to repair Hinson's injuries?" Don't precipitate disclosures—why not wait and see?"

Are you well, dear Holden? I fear that your nervous system is disordered, or that you are bilious—for you seem so to have lost your eloquent, impassioned, rich and glowing style, and I might add your courtly manners. Both appear a little jaundiced, and jaundice proceeds from the liver—and the liver affects the bilious secretions, you know. Take some warm syrup, if worms make you nervous—it will do you good.—Don't write any more until you are better. You known you are loved and feared. Try not to lose caste. When you do write my dearest Holden, write about something that you know about, if there be anything—or of somebody who cares a straw for the devil, and you and your paper. Keep the latter and your politics so straight that they "lean a little back," and keep an eye to leeward for the fellow who will "whistle you down the wind."

Yours, meditatively,
H. M. LAZELLE,
Capt. U. S. Army.

What Now?—Last year, when the Radicals swept the North upon the question of the Constitutional amendment, they declared that the voice of the people was the voice of God, and must be heeded, notwithstanding constitutions and laws stood in the way, and Congress in its legislation voted upon this principle. Since then, a great revulsion in public sentiment has taken place, which may be regarded as a condemnation of the action of Congress. Maine, Vermont, Connecticut, California, Montana, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa have thundered their verdict. If the voice of the people was the voice of God last year, is it not quite as much so now?—Louisville Courier.

For the Sentinel.

AN APPEAL.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

It is enough to rejoice the heart of every patriot in the land to hear of the mighty political reaction which is going on, and to think that our good and glorious country is not to be given up to faction, war and bloodshed and the train of heart-sickening evils consequent upon the rule of wicked and designing demagogues. Let us congratulate ourselves upon this long desired return to a proper sense of the eternal principles of right and justice, and an appreciation of the best interests of the whole country. Madness and its disatrous consequences have ruled the hour long enough. The country in the meantime has passed through a terrible ordeal. When, after the unfortunate storm a four year's devastating war had ceased, and the sun of peace had appeared again, such hopes of quiet and prosperity were entertained; but those fond hopes soon proved to be deceptive illusions. Wicked men attained to high places, the sun of peace disappeared again, the political heavens became dark and lowering, and men's hearts failed them, in view of the portending storm which was threatening to bury beneath its ruins the last hope of Constitutional government in America. Our country may not inaptly be compared to the tempest-tossed ship which for many days and nights has been driven to and fro by the lashing billows and angry storms of ocean's warring elements. Freighted with the hopes and destinies of thirty millions of souls, who were sinking in despair and about to go down beneath the waves of anarchy and misrule, when behold, to the Northward a ray of light gleams upon her forlorn and weather beaten vision, soon the bow of promise serenely spans the political heavens, and from Maine to California the sun of hope is about to burst forth again to flood the country with light and glory. How opportune, then, Messrs. Editors, is the organization of the Constitutional Union movement that has been inaugurated. Let every patriot of whatever color, who is a friend to law and order and a Constitutional Union unite with this great movement. Let moderation, discretion and wisdom characterize its platform and all its proceedings. Let the colored people be taught by conciliatory and reasonable persuasion that it is to their interest as well as to the interest of the white man, to assist in making the country great and prosperous, and that then they can reasonably hope to buy lands and homes with the proceeds of their successful labor, instead of trusting to the bloody and impracticable plan of obtaining them by Confiscation. I verily believe that many colored men, who have been deceived and decoyed into oath-bound associations, will co-operate with a Conservative party composed of good men, and such as they would not fear to trust politically or otherwise.—There has been no opposing political organization in the South, and they have heard but one side of the question. Let them hear both sides and choose between the two. Let them understand that this is not a white man's any more than a black man's party. If they however, choose to have nothing to do with this party and it turns out to be composed only of white men, why then the question will arise as to who made it a white man's party. Furthermore if Northern conservative men desire to co-operate with this movement, let them be showed respect and encouraged to mingle with us. Let bygones now be by-gones and away with this useless and mischevous abuse of "yankees." The North and the South were both responsible for the late war, and now that it is passed and gone and we are to be one people again, why should either so act as to keep alive alienation and embittered feelings? Let us all, irrespective of place of birth or of color, unite in one grand and harmonious effort to restore peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and then the southern man under his own fig tree and the colored man under his fig tree too, which he has bought with the proceeds of his honest labor, from his neighbor the Southern white man, and the northern man under his southern fig-tree can all worship God according to the dictates of our respective consciences and have a good time generally speaking all together.

A FRIEND TO ALL MEN.

The spirit of the above article commends itself to all. We endorse it fully and urge upon all Conservative men of whatever political predilections, the exercise of moderation and prudence in all matters.—EDS. SENTINEL.

GOVERNOR BRAGG.

We had the pleasure of hearing this distinguished gentleman on Saturday, in his address to the mass meeting in Raleigh. To say that the speech was characterized by great ability and good sense, is what will be expected by the people of this State, before whom he has canvassed in two exciting and able campaigns.

Gov. Bragg reviewed with much force the political excesses which have brought about the reaction now manifesting itself at the North. He warned the colored people of following the lead of the demagogues who were driving them on to their own destruction. He advised them to be content with the rights and privileges they possessed, the protection of life and property guaranteed them, and not by means of confiscation and increased disfranchisement, seek to make themselves superior to the white race.

The colored people present listened to the wholesome truths to which this gentleman gave utterance with marked attention, and its influence must be most beneficial. We hope the Governor may be able during the campaign to deliver other speeches, especially directed to the colored people. In Wake, Warren, Halifax and Northampton, where that race more particularly know him and appreciate his character, similar advice to that given to those who listened to him on Saturday, must be attended with good results to the cause of peace and prosperity in the State.

We are glad to see our able, experienced and trusted citizens giving the Conservatives of the State the aid of their support and counsels. Those men whom the people have honored and who now have their confidence, should not desert them in their dark hour of trial—Wil. Journal.

NEGRO SUPREMACY MUST BE ABANDONED.—Commenting upon the election returns, the National Intelligencer of yesterday says:

"But if the North thus decides, it is obvious that this foul outrage cannot be inflicted upon the South. No party drill or necessity can stand up against the logic of this vote. Negro supremacy in the South must be abandoned, and Congress must respect the voice of the people by making this its first work when it meets. All that can fairly be demanded of the Southern States is, that their constitutions shall conform, in substance, upon the questions of suffrage, emancipation, and equality before the law, to those now actually in force in Ohio, New York, and Pennsylvania. Let this principle be assumed—and to do so is simply to obey the popular verdict—and the work of restoration will be simple and speedy. All the complications and delay hitherto have resulted from the efforts of the Radicals to gain a party advantage in the elections of 1868; but this will not longer be endured."

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

REV. MR. WOOD'S LECTURE.—The Lecture of Rev. M. L. Wood, on Wednesday evening, at the Methodist Church, on the Manners and Customs of the Chinese, was highly interesting and well attended. The young people were not a little amused at the address and especially at the specimens of the Shanghai dialect, which Mr. Wood rendered. Many, no doubt, thought it was a good Lecture, because it was free, but we think all present could have better afforded to have paid a half dollar for such an entertainment, than many others that come along.

NORTH STATE IRON AND BRASS WORKS.—Mr. Separks the enterprising superintendent of these works, attends the Fair at Henderson, carrying for exhibition some superb specimens of Plows, manufactured at these works. This establishment is now in full operation and the wants of the farmers and the public are duly considered and attended to at this establishment.

OUR MARKET.—We have seldom seen our market so well supplied with beef, pork and mutton so early in the season.—Fowls, potatoes, eggs, &c. are abundant, but keep up wonderfully in price.

Good butter is always in demand. Why do not our mountain people, who have such fine cattle and a land flowing with milk, learn how to put up good butter and cheese and send it down to us? They must change their style of firkins and the salt they use to put it up. The kegs they put it in are not tight enough to keep lard sound four weeks much less butter. And the salt they use spoils it, making it bitter. Good ground alum salt would be much preferable. New corn sells at $1.30 per bushel!

NORTH CAROLINA RAIL ROAD.—It will be generally gratifying to our readers to see by our advertising columns, that the mail schedule of the N. C. Rail Road has been so arranged as to secure regular and close connections with all the other Roads. The arrangement we hope will be mutually beneficial to all the Roads and will accommodate the public. There will be no deduction of passengers now at any point we believe.

COTTON.—Our telegram reports cotton at 19½ in New York yesterday. We hope to see it moving up in a few days. The present is a splendid season for picking. The crop will be shorter than was expected, but we hope its quality will be good.

A DISTINGUISHED REPUBLICAN SPEAKS OUT.

Thurlow Weed acknowledges that negro supremacy is dead, and warns the Radicals against deceiving themselves. He says:

"The result did not turn half so much on the question whether colored men should vote in Ohio as whether we should by military law convert the Carolinas, Georgia, Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, &c., into St. Domingos. It was not whether negroes should vote in Ohio, but whether negroes should be voted for in southern States. Indeed, it was for this distinctly that the question was submitted. Chief Justice Chase and Senator Wade were rivals for the negro vote. The former bid for it in speeches in South Carolina. The latter played for it in the Senate. Each relied upon that element in the Radical National Convention for a nomination. They could not in decency refuse to allow the colored people of Ohio to vote while they demanded negro suffrage in rebel States, and expected that Congress would force negro suffrage upon Maryland and Kentucky.—They thought the Republican party strong enough to carry it, as it would have been if the game had been played less desperately. They charged their piece too heavily. The petard hoisted its engineer."

THE TENURE OF OFFICE LAW.—"Data," who speaks by authority, writes to the Baltimore Sun that the President will absolutely remove Mr. Stanton, and let him apply for a writ of mandamus to compel his restoration to his place in the Cabinet in case the Senate refuse to sanction the removal, thus raising in the courts the question of the constitutionality of the law. Mr. Johnson thinks the decision will be against the law.

The recent trouble of the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad Company with the government has been settled by representations of the directors' committee, and the company will go on with the election of officers at the adjourned meeting.

GOLDSBORO' LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.—We are pleased to learn that it has, at last, been definitely settled that General R. E. Colston will lecture before the Association on the 25th inst.—Goldsboro' Star.

General Ord has ordered that when a Union man is arrested he may have his trial by Military Commission instead of Rebel Court, on his oath that he fears injustice on account of his Unionism.

The present "reaction," as far as it is not affected by local causes, is a protest against the course of radical and violent leaders.—Cin. Times, (Radical)

For the Sentinel.

RALEIGH AND THE RAILROADS.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Raleigh is building costly stores. It ought to, and probably does, afford as fine opportunities for the purchase of dry goods and groceries as any place in the State. Persons ought to visit Raleigh for the purpose of supplying themselves, from distant Counties—from Warren, Wayne, Alamance—all the Counties along the line of the Railroads which come to the City.

People ought to be able to visit Raleigh and have much more than the cost of their trip in their purchases, besides having a wide range of selection and enjoying the pleasure of visiting the metropolis.

Raleigh is the capital of the State. We have here General Assemblies—Conventions of all kinds—important trials—many occasions of interest, attractive and desirable to see.

Why are not people from all sections in the habit of visiting Raleigh for business or pleasure?

The reason is obvious. Because they cannot get here without difficulty and pain—exorbitant waste of time and money. Whose fault is it? I blame the Rail Road Companies. I blame our merchants.

1st. The Rail Road Companies have been struggling so hard for through travel, they have sacrificed local travel. Schedules the most inconvenient are adopted. What is as bad, schedules are changed without the slightest previous notice. No effort is made to make local traveling easy and pleasurable. If a good schedule is adopted, no effort is made to make it known, to explain its advantages, and no reliance can be placed in its continuance.

Take the Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road. Trains on that road come to Raleigh in the evening and go out in the morning. A person coming on business most usually stay here two nights and one day. At the best he must stay in the city all night.

This ought not to be. Persons along the line of the road ought to be able to come into Raleigh in the morning and go out in the afternoon. Let such a schedule be adopted and adhered to.

Let the facts be published in newspapers and hand-bills. Let the officers of the Road be instructed to make it known orally.—Let every man and woman know that they can come here, make purchases, bring butter and eggs, &c., along to pay their expenses, and get home the same night, and depend upon it, travel on the Roads will increase wonderfully. Let our merchants resolve to make it an object to housekeepers to come; convince them they can do better here than elsewhere, and Raleigh will grow and our people flourish.

The same policy will help Franklinton, Henderson, &c.

The scheme can be tried with little cost. Even suppose the present abortive efforts to get through travel be persisted in, why can't passenger coaches be attached to freight trains and this schedule adopted? A freight train might start from Weldon at 3 o'clock, A. M., and reach Raleigh at 10 o'clock, A. M., 14 miles per hour. The same train could start back to Weldon at 3 o'clock, P. M., and run through in seven hours. If freights cannot accommodate, they might be carried by extra trains. Something like this will do.

2nd. I blame our merchants, because they don't make efforts to secure this great advantage. Let them work for it, bring influences to bear, get up proxies, go into Railroad meetings, create public opinion.—Let them awake from their lethargy. Let there be some live men in the State somewhere. Don't be imposed on forever, without a murmur.

Let our merchants advertise more. Let them not be content simply with newspaper notices. Let them post hand bills, send out agents. It is a shame that Raleigh merchants should allow country merchants to pass their doors and go to Petersburg to make purchases. They ought to sell as cheaply as Petersburg, freight added, so that country merchants may buy here and save the expense of a trip.

PROGRESS.

Tribute of Respect.

At a called meeting of Alamance Lodge, No. 139, A. Y. M., held in their Hall, on Friday, the 4th day of October, A. D., 1867, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, An All-Wise Providence has seen fit to remove from our midst our esteemed and beloved brother, MICHAEL W. LONG, who died on the 3rd inst:

Therefore, Resolved, That, in the death of brother Long, Masonry has lost one of its warmest friends, and the community one of its most energetic young men.

Resolved, That we tender to the family of the deceased our kindest sympathies, in this their sad bereavement.

Resolved, That we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the Raleigh Sentinel, for publication, and that the family of the deceased be furnished with a copy; also that they be spread upon the minutes of the Lodge.

Friday Morning Dispatches.

THE RAIL ROAD COMMITTEE—POLITICS—GEN. WISE'S ADDRESS.

RICHMOND, Oct. 17, P. M.

The Congressional Committee to investigate the affairs of Southern Railroads, have arrived and taken rooms at the Spotswood Hotel.

The political excitement is on the increase.—Conservatives are working with much energy, and everything indicates that there will be an exciting election, and that a full vote will be polled for delegates and against a Convention.

The ticket headed by Marmaduke Johnson will be voted for by the Conservatives to a man. The moderate Republicans are frightened, and it is now certain that they will join with the Radicals under Hunnicutt. There will be only two tickets on election day.

The Horticultural and Pomological exhibition closed to-day with a distribution of the prizes. It is considered a great success. Gen. Wise's speech will be published in pamphlet and is looked upon as his greatest effort.

There was a large attendance at Dr. Burrow's Church, (first Baptist,) upon the inauguration of a great organ. It is considered by musicians as the best in the U. S.

The reported difficulty on Taylor's farm is now said to be sensational.

ELECTIONS—MORE DEMOCRATIC GAINS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17, P. M.

The Democratic majority in the City is 1 400. Sweet's election is claimed as certain, and Sarry's as probable. The vote is light.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Tertiary Syphilis, (one a terrible case of eight years' standing,) in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure, I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck. The tumor reached a large size. The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nealy two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glassy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that she was Consumption, beyond question, calling at her Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis as a tonic, which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,

MRS. E. ANN SMITH.

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.

Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Cure!!

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson N. C.:

My Dear Sir—For the last few years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country, have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousand of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December 1866, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad fetter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidey, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Believed and "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your Rosadalis Rosadalis widely known?

Your sincere friend,

W. T. SELTZER.

Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 20th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

DAILY SENTINEL.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1867.

THE STORY OF A DAY.

BY COL. WM. S. HAWKINS, OF TENNESSEE.

A soldier slept as the morning unrolled
On the white tents pitched on the pleasant plain;
The bayonet's gleam was the gleam of gold,
Where the sunlight poured on the height and the wold,
And the fields of yellow grain.

Then the soldier arose, when his rest was done,
And he merrily sung to his joyous glee;
He sharpened his sword and he brightened his gun,
And he smiled as he thought of the laurels won,
That yet on his brow would be.

The couriers rode when the noontide came,
And told of grim lines advancing fast,
So the camp was filled with a wild acclaim,
And the soldier's heart was kindled with flame,
As the hurrying squadron passed.

But the glen full soon was the place of blood,
With the blazing of shot and the clang of steel,
And men lay dabbled and stained in the wood,
Though the soldier's comrades in valor stood,
Till they made the foemen reel.

When the night came down the corses were strewn,
And the soft dews fell on the face of the dead,
But the soldier's song had changed to a moan,
As faint and pale where the sad moon shone,
He lay with his bleeding head.

'Tis morning again on the tents and spears;
But the soldier's voice is forever still.
There's a form that's missed from the cavaliers;
There's a sweet face blurred with its bitter tears;
There's a nameless grave on the hill!

WHO KNOWS BEST?—We were highly amused last evening, says an exchange, at hearing the following story told by a person in illustration of the peculiar logic of an opponent; the speaker said a few years ago he was living in Missouri, and his neighbor had a negro named Ephe, who was a regular attendant at Church and was proud of his Bible learning. He was saw ing wood one day, while his master's son, a lad of about twelve years, was looking on, and now and then asking questions.

'Which of the apostles do you like best?' asked Ephe.

'Well, I don't know,' drawled out the boy. 'I likes Sampson,' said Ephe, 'he was so strong, and piled up dem wicked folks so.'

'Why, Ephe,' replied the boy, 'Sampson was not one of the apostles.'

Ephe put down his saw and looked at the youngster a moment in amazement, and then asked him, with an air of triumph, 'Look here, white boy, how old am you?'—'Twelve,' replied the boy. 'Well, I'se forty; now who ought to know best; I ax you dat?

I STILL LIVE.—Lord Byron once remarked that Glory consists in being shot in battle, and having one's name reported among the dead and wounded list.

We were never more strongly reminded of the truth of this assertion, and how little the great are remembered after their death, than on hearing the following anecdote of an eastern farmer trying to repeat the last words of the "God-like Webster," "I still live."

A gentleman remarked, 'Life is very uncertain.'

'Ah yes,' replied the farmer, 'that's true every word of it; and by the way, Captain that makes me think of what one of your big Massachusetts men said when he died a spell ago.'

'Who was it?' inquired the Captain.

'Well I don't jest call his name to mind now, but at any rate he was a big politicianer, and lived near Boston somewhere.—My newspaper said that when he died, the Boston folks put his image in their windows and had a funeral procession for a whole day.

'Perhaps it was Webster,' suggested the Captain.

'Yes, that's the name! Webster, General Webster. Strange I couldn't think on it afore. But he got off a good thing just before he died. He riz up in bed and says he, 'I aint dead yet.'

IN COURSE HE DID.—During the sitting of the Board of Registrars in Haywood County, a colored man, who was unfortunately blind, applied for the privilege of registration. The Chairman of the Board after expatiating on what the Radical party had done for the colored race, and what it intended further to do for them, and before administering the oath, asked Dan if he understood the nature and obligation of an oath. To which Dan indignantly replied—"In course I does!"

"Well, then, please tell what they are," says the Chairman.

"Well," says Dan, "it is stick to de party and vote for de candidate." He was invested.—Asheville News.

Come rest in this bosom
My African dear;
Though thy chains have fallen from thee,
Thy home is still here.
I know not, I ask not,
How much you can tote,
I but know that I love you
Because you can vote.

The Thirtieth Annual Course of Instruction in this Institution will begin November 11th and end in the following March. Preliminary lectures will be given daily in the Charity Hospital commencing October 15th, at which time also the new and extensive rooms for Practical Anatomy will be opened. The facilities of the school, heretofore unsurpassed, have, by the liberality of the State Legislature, been greatly increased during the past season, so that now EVERY CHAIR HAS ATTACHED TO IT A PRACTICAL DEPARTMENT, in which students are taught to observe for themselves the facts set forth in the Lecture Room.

Fees for all the Lectures, $140; Matriculation, (paid but once) $5; Practical Anatomy, $10. Payment required in advance.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press at work at Mr. P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement and more. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.
W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.
THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.
D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper.
J. H. CURRY,
Sup't W. H Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a screw.
PETER E. SMITH.

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr. Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit.
RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former members of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge

$25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

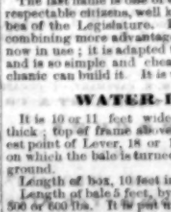
THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine



IS OFFERED TO THE

Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing

LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench.

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause.

You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put three little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory, or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."—which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, or, if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the state, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office." Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers; and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."
